Cornwell Dinner Theatre - Turkeyville & Marshall 'Christmas Again'

November 28, 2018

Wednesday

$84 per person

Non-Refundable

Can you believe it is Christmas, again! Ever want to do something over again? Paula, the perfect party planner is in a rut! She can't get anything right this holiday season as she digs through the old family decorations. Paula finds a magic bell not aware of its power, she goes on with her day, which includes chaos. But once the power of the bell is discovered, she realizes as things go wrong, use the bell to get a 'do over'! A Christmas 'do-over'. If the turkey burns, ring the bell you get a do-over. Turkey now comes out of oven perfect! Tree falls over? Ring the bell anddo over. Everyone will love this holiday magic, fun and heartwarming story.

Cornwell's Dinner Theatre opened in the fall of 1987. The idea was to get people to stay longer, so that Turkeyville would be a great destination for more than just a meal. That was almost 30 years ago and now the dinner theatre is host to over 40,000 guests in the 47 week season, which always includes great family entertainment.

Marshall: Established in 1830, town founders Sidney & George Ketchum named the community in honor of Chief Justice of the U.S, John Marshall from Virginia. Marshall was thought to be the front runner for state capitol, so much so that a Governor's Mansion was built, but lost by one vote to Lansing. Marshall was also involved in the Underground Railroad.
